

W. P. WALTON.

MR. STEVENSON recognizes the fact that he has been played for a sucker by the free silver leaders, and he is hot in the collar over it. He is especially wrathful with Blackburn, Vest, Harris and Jones, and says they have treated him most contemptibly. They told him last winter to lay low and saw wood and say nothing, and they would see that he was nominated for president, but when they got things in a sling, after he had followed their suggestion, they gave him the cold shake, Blackburn especially ignoring him and skipping out from Cape May when he went there and made a meeting probable. Because he kept his tongue in his head at their request, they now denounce him as a political coward and say that he is not the man to run on a 16 to 1 platform. The vice president indeed has real grounds for a grievance, and he can't be blamed for giving his betrayers a piece of his mind.

THE Kentucky Press Association was so well pleased with the services of Mr. H. E. Woolfolk, of the Danville Advocate, that it created the office of second vice president and elected him to it, and recognizing the fact that Mr. James W. Hopper is a human encyclopedia and a walking compendium of knowledge made him historian of the association, also creating the office for the man. It is told of Mr. Hopper that since he has been on the Courier-Journal the other editors never have to refer to other authority than him. He has read everything and has the most wonderful of memories. He was among the association's first presidents and it is safe to say that he knows more about its doings than all the rest of its members together. The truth is he is a very remarkable man and what he doesn't know is hardly worth adding to one's knowledge.

If the free silver men, who are in the saddle, are wise they will attempt no revolutionary methods or set aside any of the time-honored customs of the party. They must attempt no gag rule nor in any wise give the ultra gold bug wing any excuse for bolting. Because they have the power they should not use it despotically. Let them do every thing as decently as they can and if they will force their dogma upon us, let them not seek to nominate the candidates by the abrogation of the two-thirds rule. Such a course would be suicidal, as it would give the dissatisfied element of the party real excuse to refuse to support them.

We take it that the talk of nominating Senator Teller at Chicago is the merest rot, at least it should be if it is not. As crazy as some of the free silver men seem to be they will not do any thing so idiotic. It would result in defeat worse than that which followed the nomination by the democrats in 1872 of Horace Greeley, an original republican, and ought to. The INTERIOR JOURNAL is ready to support any decent man, with an unblemished democratic record, but Teller and free silver would be too much for it. The line would have to be drawn.

THE formal announcement of Hon. John B. Thompson's candidacy for Congress appears in this issue. Mr. Thompson is a democrat and a gentleman and is therefore preferable to any republican nominee, even if he does hold radical free silver views, and if the party at Chicago declares for free silver and Mr. Thompson gets the nomination, the INTERIOR JOURNAL is not only going to support him, but do it with a cheerful good will.

We hope we may be permitted by the free silver party to say that if they are bent on nominating a free silver man, that they could not do better than name $5,000,000 gallons. And still the prohibitionists go right along shutting off the Hon. Richard P. Bland, of Missouri. He is the great original free silverite and those who know him best speak in highest praise of his honesty of purpose and purity of character.

It will be very gratifying to his legion of friends, of whom the New York Sun is one of which, to hear that the Hon. Hez Lung, of Mercer, has secured a contract in that county for carrying the mail. The Harrodsburg Democrat says he is a very excellent citizen and not a "heaven chinee" as many suppose.

It is definitely decided that Senator Blackburn's name will be presented to the Chicago convention for president and that John Rhea will do the job. Rhea can do it about as well as the next one and having a voice equal to that of the Roaring Bull of Bashan, we'll wager, he will make himself heard.

FROM July 1, 1895, to April 30, 1896, there was manufactured in Kentucky a little over 15,000,000 gallons of whiskey. There is in bond at present in the State sale and trying to stop the consumption. Sad isn't it that so much good liquor should go to waste?

T. C. ADAMS, of the Richmond Pantagraph, wants to be secretary of the republican State campaign committee and we hope he will get it. He is an original McKinley man and besides is well fitted for the position.

BRO. NEWTON, of the Owenton Herald, tells of the only speck of war that for awhile flecked the face of the fair moon at the Georgetown editorial meet. Whitney Waldrop, a new accession to the journalistic ranks, was exceedingly anxious to see Editor R. W. Knott, the bold, bad man, who edits the bold, bad Louisville Post, and imagining that Charlie Dobbs, the capable Kentucky news man of the Louisville Times, was he, sent him a note asking him if he was Knott and if so he would like to meet him. Dobbs assumed indignation and threatened to hold the preacher-editor personally responsible. Bro. Waldrop was not on to the joke and taking it in earnest began to consider the advisability of laying aside the non-combatant principles of one profession and assuming the beligerent qualities of the other, when some one let the light into his befuddled brain that it was all a joke. And then the laugh went on.

THE sound money men under the lead of Mr. Whitney and Senator Hill are making an up hill fight for sound money, believing with Mr. Cleveland that a cause worth fighting for is worth fighting for to the end, but the majority says nothing but silver oratory shall be heard on the floor of the convention. The National committee has selected Senator Hill for temporary chairman, but the free silverites say he shall not serve, but will elect White, of California.

A dispatch from Richmond says that the Climax has been sold to Judge J. C. Chenault for $5,000, who will run it as a red hot free silver organ. The present editor, Mr. French Tipton, who is a sound money man, will be business manager and see that no money is taken that is not worth 100 cents on the dollar.

ALTOGETHER says the whole thing can be gotten through to-day at Chicago. If it were better to be done, then it were better to be done quickly.

POLITICAL POINTS.

—Of the Kentucky delegation to Chicago, 23 are for Blackburn.

—At the New York stock exchange J. S. Bache & Co. offered to bet $10,000 against $4,000 that McKinley will be the next president.

—A democratic convention to nominate a candidate for Congress in the Fourth district will be held August 27 at Elizabethtown.

—It is said that no matter who is nominated for president, John R. McLean, of the Cincinnati Enquirer, will be named for vice president.

—A caucus of the Bland forces was held at the Sherman House Sunday. Sixteen States with 218 votes were represented. The Bland leaders were much elated.

—Grant Roberts, brother of Editor Sam J. Roberts, of the Lexington Leader, was appointed Wednesday to a clerkship in the insurance department at Frankfort, under Commissioner Comins. Salary $1,500 per year.

It is not so certain that the sound money wing will allow itself to be reorganized by Jack Chinn, Eph Lillard and Company. At least the sentiment in this county is against it and that sentiment has solidified and crystallized.—Mt. Vernon Eagle.

—The ending of the short and not very brilliant career of the Owensboro Tribune leads the Messenger of the same city, to remark: The election of Bradley opened up an inviting field for experimental republican newspapers, and nearly every day that swings around the circle of time, heralds the starting of a new republican venture "to fill a long felt want." Not later than the November election and Kentucky will become notorious as a graveyard for republican journalistic failures. There have been a few already.

CHURCH CHIMES.

—Rev. R. B. Mahony is holding a successful meeting near Rock Castle Springs.

—Rev. L. M. Lasey is assisting in a camp meeting at Greenwood, Pulaski county.

—Rev. H. A. Tupper has returned from his trip around the world and will publish a full account of it.

—There were no services at the Presbyterian church Sunday, Rev. S. M. Logan being in Corbin, where he is holding a meeting.

—Rev. Walter Lackey asks us to say that the South District Association of Colored Baptists will convene at Danville at 9 A. M. Wednesday, and continue over Sunday.

—Rev. Henry N. Faulconer has been chosen to succeed Dr. J. M. Worrall as pastor of the Presbyterian church at Williamstown, where he will preach the first and fourth Sundays.—Advocate.

—The Presbyterian meeting of less than a week resulted in 10 conversions and had it been continued a great harvest of souls might have been reaped. Dr. Guerrant's inability to remain longer and the church not desiring to conflict with the Methodist meeting, caused it to close.

—Rev. H. C. Morrison is heating things red hot at the Methodist church and drawing crowds that test the capacity of the building. The second coming of Christ and sanctification are his themes and he expounds them with an eloquence and an earnestness which show how deeply he feels what he preaches. There have been no additions yet, the first work of the good evangelist always being to get the members right before the doors of the church are opened. The meeting will continue over Sunday at least.

—Dr. Eaton says in the Western Recorder: The mummy we got in Thebes, Egypt, for the Seminary library has come at last. We purchased it about the middle of March, and it has taken till the last of June to get it to Louisville. So far as we know, this is the only mummy ever brought to Kentucky, and it is as fine a specimen as can be found anywhere. It well illustrates the religious views and burial customs of those wonderful Egyptians. How they embalmed their dead that the bodies would be preserved for 4,000 years and more, no one knows. It is a lost art.

MORE NEWS NOTES.

—During June there were 3,598 deaths from cholera in Cairo, Egypt.

—There is a saloon keeper at Baintree, Mass., whose name is Will U. Drinkwater.

—Some of the silverites are for a one plank platform ignoring everything but their hobby.

—Mrs. Herbert Young, of Donnellton, in a fit of insanity, cremated herself and her daughter.

—Penitentiary prisoners at Columbus were allowed to smoke, talk, sing and yell all day Saturday.

—An L. & N. locomotive exploded at Hartzell, Ala., killing the engineer, fireman and brakeman.

—A flow of oil, estimated at 1,000,000 gallons per day, was struck in Overton county, Tennessee.

—Sydney Randolph, charged with the murder of a little girl was hung by a mob at Rockville, Mo.

—Five inches of rain fell in a few hours in Louisville Saturday, flooding the streets and filling the cellars.

—At Fairview, Ill., Mrs. Frank Armstrong, and her two children were killed by the horse they were riding, falling.

—John Allison is wanted at Millar, Tenn., for throwing hot water into his wife's face when she quarreled with him.

—Wm. Haas is in jail at Cincinnati, the confessed murderer and ravisher of Mrs. Wm. Brader, to whom he was hired.

—Frank Asher, of Perry county, shot and seriously wounded Tom Haley when the latter asked him for his daughter's hand.

—James Faulkner shot and killed William Jones, near Williamsburg. They were at a logging camp and were both drinking.

—At Morehead, Lefe Brooks was found guilty of the murder of Gus McKenzie at West Liberty, and his punishment fixed at death.

—Mrs. Ashley, who accuses "Lucky" Baldwin of betraying her, shot at him in the court room at San Francisco and wounded him slightly.

—At Edmonston, this State, Albert Scott, a prominent young lawyer, was shot to death by Nick Ray, a horseman, as a result of an old quarrel.

—As a result of the renewal of an old feud in Carter county James and Abner Conley have been dangerously wounded by an attacking faction.

—Samuel Rose, of Lewisburg, shot and seriously wounded three colored men, with whom he had quarreled. Two of them are not expected to live.

—Town Marshal H. H. Harmon and Wick Younger were killed in an encounter near Adairville Saturday. Their dead bodies were found on the roadside.

—Nine-year-old Johnny Cracker, of Hamilton, O., had both eyes blown out by the premature explosion of a cannon firecracker. At Elwood, Ind., Benjamin Thomas' head was blown off by a similar explosion.

—Frank Wall, aged 86, and a wealthy resident of Springfield, Ky., was struck by an engine and killed at Wall, Pa. He was the founder of the town of Wall, and was there to wind up a real estate deal when he met his death.

—At Terre Haute, Ind., Harry Weinicy, while out walking with a friend, placed his revolver against his temple and said: "I wonder what would happen if a man were to shoot himself here." He pulled the trigger and fell dead.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—"Old Fool" is the name of a running horse owned in Indiana.

—Gus Macey will have William Penn, 207½, in his string this year.

—The wheat crop in Central Kentucky is about 50 per cent. short.

—J. H. McAllister sold to John Embry his bunch of fat cattle averaging about 1,500 pounds at 4c.

—The Advocate says Anderson & Spillman are receiving considerable wheat at 50 and 52 cents.

—Jockey Denny McAuliff died at Lexington as the result of injuries sustained in an accident on the race track.

—F. P. Bishop sold 200 barrels of corn delivered to Anderson & Spillman at $1.50 and bought 250 ewes at $1.50 to $2 a head.

—The National Handicap was won at Latonia Saturday by Laki, the favorite, Lubengala was second and Ben Holiday third.

—Joe Thayer won the Horse Review Stakes, worth $5,000 at Chicago, with Mary Beaufort, his crack two-year-old. Best time 2:23.

—Jesse Lynn bought of Free Silver Johnson 29 cattle averaging 900 pounds at $25.50. He shipped them to Paris to sell them yesterday.

—John R. Gentry paced a mile at Red Oak, Ia., June 26th in 2:03½, the fastest mile ever made as early in the season. It is said also that he was held in the last quarter.

—John Fisher was killed in a runaway in Adair county.

—Hunn & Conover bought in Adair and adjoining counties 300 sheep and lambs at from $1 to $1.50 per head for the sheep, and from 2c to 2½c per pound for lambs.—Columbia Spectator.

—Carroll Reid's Hoodwink won at Latonia last week; D. W. Vandever's Miss Emma ran second to him. Hoodwink was $9 to $2 and Miss Emma $30 to $1 in the betting. Thorpe rode the former and Blevins, the latter.

—D. C. Terhune has bought in Mercer, Boyle, Lincoln, Washington and Anderson counties 52 first-class sugar mule colts at an average of $40.50. Also half a car-load of cotton mule colts that averaged $18.45.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

—Charles Gottschard, of Cedarburg, Wis., has a horse which has been worked in a livery stable for 27 years, or since he was four years old. He is as sound as a dollar, was never sick a day and continues to do as much work as the rest of them.

—Ten golden medals have been received by Mr. F. D. Spotswood, of Harrodsburg, from the Russian government, granted under the provision of the racing law of that country, on his horse, Flush, which holds the Russian two-mile record at 4:44.

—Up to date Covington, Arnold & Bro., have bought about 25,000 bushels of wheat at from 45 to 50 cents. The same firm also bought and shipped recently the blue-grass seed crop of the county, in all about 2,500 bushels, for which they paid 60 cents.—Richmond Register.

—A Kaufman, Texas, man has a Poland China-Red Jersey hog, which at 3½ years old weighed 1,430 pounds. He is eight feet and three inches long, four feet and one inch high, measures six feet around the neck, eight feet around the body and 23 inches around the forearm. His feet are as large as those of a common ox and the leg bone larger than that of the largest steers. He eats corn like an ox, takes the whole ear in his month at once and eats the cob as well as the corn, eating from 40 to 50 ears of corn at a time. There seems to be no surplus flesh on him and physicians who have examined the hog say he can easily be made to reach 2,200 pounds. The present owner paid $250 for the hog and has been offered $1,500 for him. He has an insurance policy on the animal for $5,000.

The old timers are dropping out of the fun, but it is pleasant for them to be remembered in this way by those who attended the Press Association. Col. B. J. Newton says in his notes of the meeting at Georgetown: Many familiar faces of the olden time were conspicuous by their absence, among them being our much esteemed friend, W. P. Walton, of the Stanford Interior Journal; French Tipton, of the Richmond Climax; W. A. Holland, of the Eminence Constitutionalist; J. W. Hopper, of the Courier-Journal; Emmett Logan, of the Louisville Times; S. J. Roberts, of the Lexington Leader; Clarence E. Woods, of the Richmond Register; Aitchison and Dan Bowman, of the Woodford Sun; W. T. Havens, of the Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat; F. D. Spotswood, of the Harrodsburg Democrat, and others whose names do not recur to us just now. These are actively at work in the ranks, but there are others who have put off the harness to engage in other pursuits.

—Fully 15,000 women and girls of Washington ride bicycles. It may then be imagined what a sensation has been produced by the formal declaration by the Woman's Rescue League that the bicycle is a promoter of immorality.
